SONOMA, SONOMA COUNTY, CAL., AUGUST 18, 1913.

NO. 7

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND SONOMA.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in the Valley as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Vote against the recall of Supervisor Weise.

Jim McBride transacted business at the county seat on Saturday last.

Ken Weaver was an S. P. passenger for the City of Roses last Saturday evening.

Mrs. W. Hunt of Martinez spent several days last week as a guest at the Weaver residence.

C. A. Bergstrom of Fetters Hot Springs was sight-seeing in the metropolis Sunday.

Nick Dowdall and family have returned from Dillon's Beach after a pleasant two weeks vacation.

Tom Millerick, champion bronco buster of California, boarded the train here Saturday en route to Santa Rosa.

Wm. and Louis Kearney left for Cotati Monday, where they are busy hauling hay for shipment to San Francisco.

Harry Baines, accompanied by chauffeur Roy Chance, spent the first of the week in Fresno taking in the different sights there.

The El Verano Grammar School reopened last Monday with a large attendance. Harry Collins, an eastern chap, is the new principal.

Rumor among the knowing ones is that Jim Sterling, a well-known Sonoma horseman, is about to wed a dashing summer girl. Nuf sed.

Otto Brandt, one of Schellville's most prominent horsemen, boarded the train here last Saturday en route to Oakland and other Bay cities.

Captain Karglan, a seafaring man, is spending a few weeks at the El Verano Villa and seems to be the candy kid amongst the ladies.

John and Carl Vincent were in the city Sunday looking around and also engaged a suite of rooms for the coming Portola festival in October.

Al Dupont, owner of the famous Mike C, boarded the train here Saturday morning en route to Woodland on business connected with the famous trotter.

It looks as if Editor Granice has got the Prohibitionists on the run. Stay with them, Harry. If you are assassinated Archie McKiver will step in and finish the fight.

The result of the ball games played in Sonoma Valley Sunday were: Boyes Springs 9, U. S. Laundry 4; Glen Ellen 5, San Francisco Post 17; Sonoma 10, Greater Oakland 9.

Miss Mazie Herlihy, accompanied by her charming and most beautiful sister, Miss Eleanor of the metropolis, is spending the week at the El Verano Villa.

The Sonoma Expositor is getting to be quite a scream. One week it is knocking the next week apologizing and we are wondering what it will do next—probably retreat from business or start a daily. He, Ho!

A number of our local sports are getting their hair shaved off close to their heads. They present a most beautiful sight and manager Collins of our theatre should make a bid to have them appear on our local stage. They would certainly be some drawing card.

President Jim Baines, Thos. Baines, Dr. Parramore and Dr. Thomson were in Santa Rosa last Friday in the interest of the Black Point Cut-off. All these are members of the El Verano Development Association which has undertaken the task of boosting the great improvement that has set Sonoma and Marin counties afire the past several days. The association has worked hard and the victory is about won.

All voters here are just tickled to death that Bigelow is going through with the recall of Supervisor Weise, for many of them were getting uneasy, thinking he would quit. Now, that it looks as if the election was a certainty, both women and men are lending every effort to sweep the present Supervisor into office with a larger majority than at the last election. They want to show the trouble maker that it is the voters that are running this Supervisorial district and not a rattle-brained agitator.

J. Tracy of Cotati transacted business here last Sunday.

E. Mullen was an El Verano visitor to the Bay City Monday.

Mrs. L. Apparius of Oakland is the guest of her father Mr. L. Lubas.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chance spent Sunday with relatives in San Francisco.

George McNab, Sonoma's well-known umpire, was one of the many from that town that took in the ball game at Boyes Springs Sunday.

Monday morning just before the S. P. train arrived, a man, dog and a small chicken created quite a sensation in front of the Sonoma Valley stables. The dog, a prize pup belonging to a San Francisco cop, was in the act of killing the broiler, when John Algren appeared on the scene and went to its rescue. With a pitchfork in his hand, John plunged it at the cur dog, just missing it. After a great deal of trouble, Jack succeeded in driving off the dog. At this writing nothing had been seen of man or pup but the chicken is able to be out, none the worse for the combat.

Mrs. D. Herlihy of San Francisco is a guest at one of our local resorts.

Captain Glennan of San Francisco is spending the week at one of our local resorts.

Miss Alice O'Dowd, a charming young lady of San Francisco, is a guest at the Home Cottage, Agua Caliente.

Billy Fowler, a rising young society chap of Sonoma, passed through here Sunday sporting a brand new motorcycle.

J. Vincent and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Poulson and Fred. Brunnerman of San Francisco autoted to Calistoga last Sunday, returning by way of Petaluma.

George Perazzo, one of Sonoma's rising young society chaps, is seen each evening with a rubber tired rig en route up the valley.

Jack Martin, a well-known Richmond business man, is here to spend his annual vacation. Jack has been coming here for a number years and his many friends are glad to see him.

A number of our locals are raising eye brows on their upper lips. Those most noticeable are George Weaver, M. Pupard and Bill Freeman. The boys present a sight most beautiful to behold.

John Basilou, accompanied by Beau Brummel Byron Weaver, spent the fore part of the week in San Francisco on a sight seeing tour. Although the boys got rid of their loose change they report a good time.

It is rumored here that one of leading prohibitionists became intoxicated up the valley one night last week. The last seen of him he was being carried to his conveyance by friends. Why sure they all like their booze. Probably he was attending a high jinks with the boys or campaigning for Kilgore.

It is rumored that George Mizue, formerly Jap foreman on the J. K. Bigelow ranch, has leased part of it, including the chicken ranch. Reformer Bigelow will now devote his entire time to the cleaning up of the valley. "Eh." We wonder if Guy isn't doing a little graft with the Anti-Saloon League. It is the opinion of all here that it isn't his money that is making this fight and that he is getting his from the League. He is the only one that claims the valley is unclear.

Charley Miller, heavyweight aspirant for championship honors, has been matched to box the king of the heavy weights, Arthur Belkay at Venice some time next month. Charley will pack his trunk and leave for the southern city the first of September where he starts training for one of the most important battles of his career. Manager Parvate has worked hard to clinch the match and it is now up to big Charley to bring home the bacon. He has been looking for a fling at the belt for a long time and he will not doubt put up a stubborn battle and all his friends here will watch the result with interest.

C. A. Cadman of the O'Brien ranch spent several days last week in the metropolis.

Attorney Tom Hickey of San Francisco was among the many who visited in our valley Sunday.

Things are progressing in El Verano. The trustees have seen fit to start out the term with three teachers in our local grammar school.

The many friends of Art Hickman, the popular reporter of the Index Tribune, are sorry to learn that he has been quite ill in one of the San Francisco hospitals. At this writing, however, he was getting along nicely.

Sailor Ed Petroskey who fought a gruelling 20-round draw in the city on Friday evening of last week with Bob McAllister is at Miller's Villa resting up after the hard bout. The sailor has a black eye, but aside from that is none the worse for his fierce encounter.

Eddie Healy, the well-known San Francisco comedian, who is spending the summer at Boyes Springs, was among those who took in the ball game Sunday. Eddie kept the crowd in a continual uproar with some of his live sayings and rooted hard for the visitors.

The baseball game Sunday between Boyes Springs and the fast U. S. Laundry team of the metropolis was won by the former. The visitors held down the home team the first five innings without a run but suddenly their pitcher blew up and Boyes scored five runs in one inning. The score was 9 to 4 at the end of the game.

Our long-legged friend, the pesky mosquito, has been an undesirable citizen here the past week and our beautiful summer girls are covered with monkey bites inflicted by their uninvited lovers but at this writing they are making their get away, much to the delight of all. We have other pests here in this valley which all wish would join our friends, the mosquitos, as the one in the northern part of the valley is just as bad for the valley as our friend daddy long legs and to the writer is a good comparison. Get it?

Judge Denny Decides in Favor of Mrs. Blair Hart

Judge Thomas C. Denny made an order in the Superior court on Thursday of last week, giving judgment for defendants in the suit of George P. Lovejoy, as administrator on the estate of the late Anna La Point, against former Supervisor and Mrs. Blair Hart.

This was an action brought by the plaintiff to have the defendants return to the estate of Mrs. La Point a gift of $4000, which eighteen years previously Mrs. La Point had bestowed upon Mrs. Hart. She made her home with the Hart family at Lakeville for eighteen years and was regarded as one of the members of the family and was treated as such.

An effort was made at the trial to set up that Mrs. Hart had induced Mrs. La Point to make the gift but the evidence failed utterly to support any such contention. The court's order on Thursday was just what friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hart anticipated it would be under the showing made at the trial. Deputy District Attorney Jack W. Ford and the Hon. T. Geary were the attorneys for Mr. and Mrs. Hart.

Figuring Horse-Power of Automobile Engines

To find the horse-power of your motor-car, square the diameter of the cylinder, multiply it by the number of cylinders, and divide it by 24.

"That is the rule adopted by the Society of Automobile Engineers. It is not absolutely accurate but it is approximately so, at a definite piston speed, and it is at least as fair for one maker as for another."

"While we are interested in this computation, still the Hudson cars are not rated according to any arbitrary formula. We test Hudson engines on a dynamometer, which gives readings showing actual brake horse-power. The motor of the '54," a Six-Cylinder car develops 57.8 horse-power at 1,500 revolutions per minute. At a little higher engine speed it shows 65 horse-power."

"It is hardly fair therefore to any of the modern efficient motors to use the standard S. A. E. rating. Efforts are being made to secure a more accurate formula, and it is likely that this will be accomplished. Practically all motors are now made with the long stroke. This affects very much the accuracy of the standard rating."

A Bum Lawyer and Hypocritical Reformer and the Blind Pigger.

A sensation was sprung in Judge Campbell's court in this city last Tuesday during the trial of Nicola Ramazano, a grocery dealer of El Verano, who had been arrested by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan, one day last week, charged with violating the county liquor ordinance.

The defendant was represented by attorney Frank Sprague and the prosecution by District Attorney Clarence F. Lea.

The sensation in the case came when the accused took the witness stand and the following questions in substance were put to him by attorney Sprague to answer under oath:

Question—Mr. Ramazano, what is your business?

Answer—I sell groceries, vegetables, beer, wine, etc.

Question—Have you a license to sell beer and wine?

Answer—I have a U. S. revenue license and was told by the revenue man that I could sell not less than a quart and not more than 4½ gallons on that license.

Question—Did anybody else ask you if you were selling liquor?

Answer—Yes, Mr. Bigelow. He asked me if I was selling liquor. I told him yes. He asked me if I had a license. I told him I held a revenue license. He said that was all right.

Question You knew Mr. Bigelow was making a fight to stop the sale of liquor here, did you not?

Answer—Yes. We were friendly. He patronized me. I knew he was a lawyer, and when he told me that it was all right I felt perfectly safe in selling as I did. I did not try to hide anything.

Judge Campbell, in view of the above confession, fined the defendant $10.00, which was perfectly right and proper, as it was as clear as daylight that Ramazano had been the victim of a bum lawyer and hypocritical reformer, for did he not swear on the witness stand that he was running a blind pig on the advice of J. K. Bigelow, who dared not take the witness stand and deny the accusation.

The accused, who is evidently a well-meaning man, paid his fine, while Bigelow, who aided and abetted him in violating the liquor ordinance goes scott free and is still at large whoopin' 'em up for the recall of Supervisor Weise, who is doing his level best to enforce the liquor ordinance of the county.

Now, what do you know about that?

Remarkable Auto Accident.

While Mrs. Geo. Zane of Yolo county and Mrs. Lulu Wells and two children of Red Bluff were driving into town in their Chalmers touring car last Tuesday evening they had a most miraculous escape. While descending the hill on the Napa road just this side of the Lowell ranch the machine skidded and plunged into an electric telephone pole alongside the road. The entire front of the car was wrecked by the impact and it was hurled into a deep ditch and turned three-quarters over. All the occupants went down with the machine, but most miraculously escaped injury and were enabled to crawl out from underneath it, none the worse for their adventure. The wrecked car was brought in to town and taken to the Mission garage for repairs. Mrs. Zane and Mrs. Wells and two children are at present guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson.

Library Trustee Appointed.

Mrs. Amelia Bates, a prominent club woman of this city, has been appointed a member of the Library Board of Trustees, vice Miss Katie McDonnell, term expired. The appointment was made by Mayor Cummings last Tuesday evening at a meeting of the City Trustees and is a popular one.

Miss Stofen Resigns as Librarian

At a meeting of the Public Library Trustees held last Wednesday evening the resignation of Miss Meta Stofen was accepted as Librarian, to take effect October 1st. Her successor will be chosen at the September meeting of the Library Board.

For Rent.

One hundred acre ranch for $200 per year. Will also lease seven fine cows, one large horse, 300 chickens and farming implements on reasonable terms. Located two miles from El Verano. Apply at this office.

Brief Mention.

Miss Stella Boyd, sister of District Attorney Boyd of Marin county, is here from San Rafael. She is registered at Boyes Springs.

The nickel dances recently inaugurated by the Boys Band on the Plaza are becoming the real thing among the younger set in this city.

J. Peterson of Peterson's Resort near Boyes, was fined $360 by Judge Campbell last Tuesday for selling liquor without a license. This was his second offense, hence the heavy fine.

A large crowd of Sebastopol Apple Show boosters made a descent upon the town last Wednesday. They came here in automobiles and banners flying, causing our people to sit up and take notice. Among the boosters was J. P. McDonnell of the Sebastopol Times, who was raised in this city.

Michael J. Equi, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Equi of this place, died in the metropolis last Sunday. The deceased, who leaves a number of brothers and sisters, was born in San Francisco 32 years ago. The remains were brought here for interment in the Catholic Cemetery, the funeral taking place Wednesday morning, and was largely attended by relatives and friends.

On Thursday last County Surveyor Geo. Richardson of Marin and County Surveyor Thos. McNamara of Sonoma visited the site of the Black Point Cut Off bridge, and after looking over the ground were very favorably impressed with the proposition. The gentlemen were accompanied by Mayor Cummings of this city, President J. Baines of the El Verano Development Association, R. Litchenberg of Boyes Springs and Thos. Baines of El Verano.

EASY JIM.

Vineburg, Aug. 12, 1913.

Congregational Church, August 17, 1913.

There is but one Lord, who is Judge of all the earth. He has told us the rule that he will follow in finding the goats. What your opinion is cuts no figure; your belief has no value; do you measure up to the rule is the only question. You cannot fool God as easily as you fool yourself. The fellow who does not care a straw about God will be tested by the same yard-stick as the fellow who thinks he does. Before the judgment throne the women will receive no gallantries and the young and blushing maid no overtures. Sunday morning at 11 a. m. we will preach this rule so that you may clean house by it. Nothing like knowing your job.

We have some ways that the preacher calls moral irregularities, but motive idiom calls rotten. My friend there is nothing in a name. A spade is not a spoon. There is just one way of overturning evil and when a man begins to boost himself against the Almighty by giving his way turn him down. Most of him is fancied head with out a heart. Sunday evening at 8 p. m. will give God's way. "He who lives to God alone, And all are dead besides; For other source than God is none Whence life can be supplied." T. M. PRICE

Hay Market.

Somer's & Co., in their weekly bulletin, report the hay market for the past week as follows:

Receipts of hay continue very heavy, 5383 tons arriving during the past week, which is more than has arrived any week this season with the exception of the week previous. Conditions remain about the same, prices still being weak and the hay moving off the tracks only with difficulty, many consumers still being of the opinion that a further decline in prices will be realized.

In country districts where there has been a small percentage of the crop sold, the farmers are now anxiously seeking a market and making concessions in prices in order to sell. However, even at the lowest prices, very little hay is being sold, dealers evidently preferring to clean up what stock they have before making further purchases.

There is no change in the alfalfa situation, prices for the most part being lower than the growers care to accept.

Send your letter heads, envelopes, business cards, etc., to the Index-Tribune. We will print them right and our prices will be right.

Baseball Notes.

Sonoma 10; Greater Oakland 9. That was the score at the end of last Sunday's contest on the home diamond. The Oakland boys made six runs in the first inning on two hits, two walks and a couple of boots in the infield. There was no more scoring by the visitors until the ninth when they scored three. The Sonoma boys landed on McNeal, Oakland's first pitcher, for six runs in the early innings and he was relieved by Beakley a left hander. In the eighth the Sonoma lads got the south-paw's goat for four runs, enough to cinch the game.

Score R H E
Sonoma 10 7 3
Oakland 9 9 5
Batteries: Rylander and Block; McNeal, Beakley and Williams. Umpire, J. Canevari.

Rylander, Sonoma's pitcher, has the stamina and grit so necessary in the make-up of a ball player. O Saturday he twirled a winning game for the Western Electric Colts of Alameda. In Sunday's contest "Ry" speeded the pill across for another victory. No matter how far behind he may be he never gets discouraged. We like players of that type. They make the game worth while. The game was replete with good plays. One in particular, a combination catch and double play, was spectacular. The Oaks had base runners on first and third with one out. The batter knocked a fly in back of second base. Second baseman Bill Block could not quite make the put-out, but desperately knocked the ball down into right-fielder Leiser's hands. The runner on first thought the ball had gone safe and ran to second. Leiser raced to first and completed a sensational double play. Sonoma's right-fielder is a mope-speed burner. There will be no game Sunday owing to the absence of a number of players. On the 24th inst. Yountville will cross bats with the locals.

public and tradesmen in particular not to give credit to my wife without first having consulted with me.
My reason for this is that I do not want her to contract an indebtedness that I am not in a financial position to pay. I will pay all bills contracted by her up to date.
D. MCKENZIE.
August 7th, 1913.

WARNING

A valuable mare having been killed, as well as much other serious damage wrought, by irresponsible hunters, I am compelled to warn the public off my ranch. All hunters, fishers and trespassers will be prosecuted. JACK LONDON
